Note to the file

Update on Next Steps

This note provides parties with details on the next steps in relation to commenting on the Statement of Essential Facts (SEF).

The TRA has granted three interested parties' extensions on submitting their comments on the SEF (please see General publication - Notice of extension 21 June 2022)

The TRA would like to offer parties the opportunity to provide further submissions on any comments on the SEF made available on the public file. In addition, the TRA would like to offer parties the opportunity to meet to discuss their submissions. The table below sets out the timetable for these provisions.

If parties wish to request a meeting with the TRA, they will need to do so in advance. Please note the guidance available on our website on meetings and hearings:
