

Trade Remedies
Authority

Investigation No AS0020
Investigation into Alleged Subsidisation concerning Ironing boards from the Republic of Turkey

Notification of sampling approach

Due to the small number of responses in both the registration period and to the pre-sampling questionnaire, the Trade Remedies Authority (TRA) will not limit examination of overseas exporters/importers/UK producers at this stage. It may become necessary to limit examination to a sample of these categories if further submissions are received.

This notice is not intended to preclude the TRA from limiting examination to a sample of transactions for the purchase of like goods or directly competitive goods.

In detail, the sampling approach for overseas exporters, UK producers and importers in this review is defined below.

Overseas exporter sampling:

No sampling needed: The small number of responses to the pre-sampling questionnaire means the TRA does not consider it appropriate to limit examination regarding exporters.

Trade Remedies
Authority

UK producer sampling:

No sampling needed: The small number of responses to the pre-sampling questionnaire means the TRA does not consider it appropriate to limit examination regarding UK producers.

Importer sampling:

No sampling needed: The small number of responses to the pre-sampling questionnaire means the TRA does not consider it appropriate to limit examination regarding UK importers.

Further information

You can find more information about our investigations processes in our online trade remedies guidance: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/the-uk-traderemedies-investigations-process/an-introduction-to-our-investigations-process>

20 May 2022