

Deficiency notice 10/08

Reference 1

Annex 12 – as requested the other investment figures have been indexed

Reference 2

Annex E1 updated inline with the request

Reference 3

Non confidential submission – A1

The company information within this section has been marked as confidential because it would reveal information to third parties, customers and competitors which could compromise the ongoing business relationships with the applicant in a negative way, particularly if customers took an adverse view on the application and could put the applicant in a negative spotlight in their businesses. It cannot be redacted or summarised as to give any information would be to give all information.

The point of contact information has been marked as confidential as it is personal information that could identify an individual.

Reference 4

Non confidential submission – C3

The information provided within this section has been marked as confidential because it potentially reveals the identity of the business to third parties, customers and competitors which could compromise the ongoing business relationships with the applicant in a negative way, particularly if customers took an adverse view on the application and could put the applicant in a negative spotlight in their businesses. The business would be very easily identified from the physical addresses provided within this section, even a summarised version would still make the business very easily identified.

Reference 5

Annex E1 row 69 – updated as requested.