TD0010 - Anti-dumping proceeding concerning certain HFP Rebar products originating in the People's Republic of China

Notification of PMS allegation

Dear Mr He Shuangqi (Ministry of Commerce, P.R.C.),

We are writing to inform you of allegations received of a particular market situation (PMS) with regards to the Chinese economy as part of our transition review TD0010 – HFP Rebar.

Details of these allegations can be found on our public file at <https://www.trade-remedies.service.gov.uk/public/case/TD0010/>. We would like to give you the opportunity to comment or provide any further information in response to these allegations should you wish to do so.

Please provide any response by 3 December 2021. Where a response is received after this deadline, information may not be taken into account. Please note that any submission you make should be made through the TRS website, and if you are providing confidential information, please also provide a non-confidential version that would be placed on the public file.

Yours sincerely,

James Iddiols
