Section A – Your organisation’s interest in the case

To register your organisation’s interest in this case, please complete the text boxes below. You should use this form if you are not a producer, importer or exporter of the goods subject to review or like goods. For a definition of goods subject to review/like goods, please refer to the Notice of Initiation.

Please describe the role of your organisation with regards to the goods subject to review or the like goods:

CHINA CHAMBER OF INTERNATIONAL COMMERCE (CCOIC) is a national chamber of commerce organization established with the approval of the State Council and composed of enterprises, groups and other organizations engaged in international commercial activities in China. CCOIC adopts a membership system and its main responsibilities include: promoting economic and trade exchanges and cooperation between China and foreign countries; reflecting interest appeal of enterprises to international organizations and government departments of China and foreign countries on behalf of Chinese business community; participating in constitution and promotion of international trade rules; facilitating enterprises to participate in international competition and cooperation; safeguarding legitimate rights of its members, and actively advocating social responsibility and public welfare among business circles.

Therefore, on behalf of Chinese producers and exporters involved in the subject-referenced investigation, CCOIC respectfully request to register an interest in the TD0011: certain cold rolled flat steel products case and coordinate its members involved to participate and cooperate with the investigation.

Please describe your interest in this case:

Pursuant to the Guidance: An introduction to our investigations process, CCOIC notes that there is a difference between “contributors” and “interested parties” in the UK trade remedy investigation. An interested party refers to any party directly involved in the investigation, including a trade or business association representing one or many of these parties while a contributor is a person or organization who is not an interested party but who has contacted the authority so that they can participate in an investigation.

In this respect, CCOIC would like to mention that as a national commerce organization, many members in CCOIC were involved in the current investigation. Hence, CCOIC respectfully request to register as an interested party rather than a contributor in this investigation.

Section B – Additional information

Use the box at the end of this section to provide any other relevant information which you think would be useful to help our investigation.

This may include:

- other parties you believe should receive a questionnaire;
- any initial views you have about the possible existence of a particular market situation in the domestic market of the exporting country or territory such as:
 - situations/distortions in the domestic market of the exporting country where prices are artificially low;
 - significant barter trade;
 - prices reflect non-commercial factors; or
 - any other reason
 which means it is not appropriate to use the comparable price to determine the normal value of the goods subject to review;
- the scope of the investigation; or
- anything else you consider relevant.

CCOIC submits that the volume of the alleged dumped goods during the injury period is negligible.

Pursuant to UK Customs Statistics, during the injury investigation period (except for March 2021 where the information is not available on UK Customs), the Chinese producers hardly exported the goods subject to the review to the UK.
