

Department for International Trade

Record of correspondence
Request for information sent to UK Interested Parties and Contributors on 30 June 2020

TRANSITION REVIEW No.TS0002

Transition review of the UK trade remedies countervailing measure concerning certain rainbow trout originating in Turkey.

Note to the file

The Secretary of State for International Trade (the Secretary of State) would like to invite all interested parties and contributors participating in transition review TS0002 to help identify the UK upstream and downstream companies of the goods covered in this transition review. This information will be used when we conduct the Economic Interest Test, which is carried out to assess whether our preliminary decision is in the economic interest of the UK.

Please tell us about:

- UK upstream companies – those who produce inputs needed for the like goods.
- UK downstream companies – those who purchase the goods subject to review or the like goods.

If possible, please provide contact details for these companies.

If your response contains information you feel is confidential, please include a non-confidential version and explain why that information is considered confidential. This is so we can publish the information you provide on our public file, as part of our normal investigation process. Please submit your response via the Trade Remedies Service (www.trade-remedies.service.gov.uk) by 14 July 2020.

Further information

You can find more information about our investigations processes in our online trade remedies guidance: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/the-uk-trade-remedies-investigations-process>.

You can find guidance on how we handle confidential information at <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/the-uk-trade-remedies-investigations-process/an-introduction-to-our-investigations-process#handling-confidential-information>.

30 June 2020