TRANSITION REVIEW No.TS0018

Note to the public file regarding a time extension to complete questionnaires

Having considered the two Bank Holidays in the United Kingdom that take place on Thursday 2 June 2022 and Friday 3 June 2022, the TRA has decided to extend the deadline for completion of questionnaires by two days, the completion deadline date now set as Monday 4 July 2022. The TRA has determined that this 2-day extension will not significantly impede the progress of the investigation.
